

Exercise B: Data Categories

Task

1. Ask your partner to define the category of data in each example from the table below.
2. Add two more questions of your own choice.
3. Record the answers for further processing.
4. When you are ready, download the exercise BB and follow the instructions in it.

Questions

#	Question	Answer
1	Gender of survey participant
2	The rating of a movie (i.e., G, PG, PG-13, NC-17, R)
3	Number of cups of coffee consumed per week
4	Make and Model of favorite car
5	Number of hours watching TV per day
6	Whether a participant's computer skills are "Good", "Fair", or "Poor"
7	The distance driven from student's home to the school
8	In a survey of Baskin Robin's stores, the flavor of best-selling ice cream
9	Blood pressure readings of survey participants
10	If get hiccups "Less than once per year", "1-11 times per year", or "Monthly"
11	Total cost of each participants' textbooks for the Fall semester
12	Whether a cookie dough is best called "lumpy", "yummy smelling", or "gooey"
13	Number of words a participant can type per minute
14	If a student thinks class is "Fun", "Challenging", "Exciting", "Useful"
15	Age-group of underage drinkers; possible options: 1-5, 6-10, 11-15, 16-20 years
16	If participants "Strongly agree", "Agree", or "Disagree" with a statement
17	The number of residences a participant has lived in during the past 10 years
18	Temperature of the air in Celsius degrees
19
20		